Jordan Frisbee & Tatiana Mollmann

September 17 - 18 - 19, 2004
Friday—Saturday—Sunday

Join us in Kansas City for a great weekend of workshops and dancing!

Jordan Frisbee & Tatiana Mollmann have been a successful partnership for five years. They are the 2004 Grand National Champions, they have two US Open Championship Titles, and they are the current Classic Division Champions in the swing circuit in the United States.

In 2002, they were the Grand Prize Winners ($25,000) on the Fox Television Show "30 Seconds to Fame," and recently made it to the semifinals on the CBS Television Show "Star Search." Just recently their motion was captured for a dance scene in the computer animated movie, "The Polar Express", in theaters this fall. Look for them as the "Dancing Elves."

Besides attending college, Jordan & Tatiana travel 40 out of 52 weekends per year, competing and teaching packed workshops all across the country. Trained by Skippy Blair, they are Certified Teachers in the Golden State Dance Teacher's Association. You can count on their West Coast Swing Classes to be filled with technique and fundamentals to help elevate your level of dance. Learning should be fun and their classes are known for that. Come and experience their easy and precise way of breaking down the dance.
